MAY RAISE PRICE OF PAPER SERVING

Light Vote Permits Sheriff to Charge $1.50 for Citation Service.

The fee for serving citations and other papers may be increased under the regime of Peyton Edwards as sheriff if he cares to take advantage of the law. The increase is allowed owing to the fact that the vote at the election just held fell below the 3000 mark.

The state law provides that the fee for serving citations may be $1.50 when the vote is not 3000. At present the fee is but 75 cents. Increases are allowed the sheriff for the serving of other papers, although there are more people and more voters in the county than ever.

The light vote may cost El Paso county residents a lot of money.

ELECTED COUNTY ATTORNEY

While in local hospital R. B. Russell, of Marfa, Texas, who is recuperating at Hotel Dreu from a nervous breakdown, was elected county attorney of Presidio county at Tuesday's election. He had been acting county attorney for the past year and was elected for the full term last Tuesday.

Mr. Russell was formerly a resident of El Paso.

A Good Cough Mixture

Simple Home-made Remedy Free From Opium and Harmful Drugs.

An effective remedy, that will usually break up a cold in twenty-four hours and quickly relieve the most irritating cough, is easily made at home by mixing together in a large bottle, 2 ounces of glycerine, a 1/4 ounce of virgin oil of pine, and 8 ounces of pure whiskey. Shake well and take a teaspoonful every four hours. The necessary ingredients are inexpensive and can be bought in any good drug store.

This formula is the one used and recommended for many years by the late Dr. W. A. Leach, founder of the Leach Chemical Co., Cincinnati, O., in whose laboratories the genuine virgin oil of pine is compounded.

RECEIVES MANDATES.

Mandates have been received by district clerk Alderete from the court of criminal appeals at San Antonio affirming cases appealed from the 34th district court as follows:

State vs. Santiago Overman, convicted of criminal assault.

State vs. Juan Vargas, convicted of burglary.

State vs. Carlos Brisenio, convicted of burglary.

State vs. Margarito Flores, convicted of burglary.

State vs. Luis Hernandez, convicted of assault to murder.

MORTGAGE FORECLOSURE SUIT.

In justice Watson's court suit asking the foreclosure of a mortgage is asked by P. J. Donley against W. K. Van Patten. Van Patten, who bought a team of horses from Donley and gave a mortgage for $150, $20 of which has since been paid, alleges in his answer that the "horses are not always as they seem."

CHARGED WITH ASSAULT.

On a charge of drunkenness and assault, Rafael Fox will give a hearing in police court Saturday afternoon. His wife is the prosecuting witness. As a result of injuries received, she was treated at the emergency hospital at the police station, where a deep gash on the back of her head was dressed.

PARTIAL EVIDENCE HEARD.

Partial evidence has been heard in the 41st district court in the suit of Maurice McKelton vs. F. E. Kern, involving the title to a tract of mesa land. The testimony of Mr. Kern will be taken after November 20, on which date he is expected to arrive on his return trip from Alaska.

DECLARE MANLEY VERDICT UNJUST

National Guard Officers in Conference Decide to Secure Soldier's Release.

Dallas, Tex., Nov. 12.—A large number of officers of the Texas national guard met here today to confer over the conviction of sergeant Manley for the killing of Louis Richenstein.

Brigadier general Roy Dearne, of San Antonio, presided, and after announcing the purpose of the meeting, said this is the most serious problem ever faced in Texas, and because the members may desire to express themselves fully, he believed the meeting should be executive.

Judge J. C. Muse, Manley's counsel, gave views in the Manley case. The transcript of the evidence was considered and the officers decided the verdict unjust and will take steps to secure Manley's freedom.

According to the officers' expressions if the verdict stands the guard will disband. A committee this afternoon will be appointed to ask the legislature to enact a law clearly defining the duties of the guard, when called out.

BISBEE SCHOOL PUPILS HAVE PERFECT FIRE DRILL

Bisbee, Ariz., Nov. 12.—An alarm of fire at the Central school building caused the 700 children and their respective teachers to reach the outside in perfect order in a few minutes. The alarm proved to be only a test, which had been secretly arranged between professor Philbrook and chief Norton of the fire department, who complimented the pupils for their efficiency in fire drilling.

The news of the death of George C. Evans, well known in this city, who died in Douglas Wednesday night, has caused deep sorrow to many of his friends. Mr. Evans practiced Christian Science here and it is said he declined medical assistance during the last illness which carried him to his grave.

Miss Alice A. Garlick and W. F. Williams, both of Douglas, were married here at the Vail residence on Mason Hill. Rev. Hugh Copeland officiated. The groom is manager of the Western Union at Douglas.

C. L. Larson was taken to the Calumet and Arizona hospital for treatment of injuries received at the Lowell mine, having been struck by a heavy boulder.

MRS. KRAUSE IS TAKEN BACK TO CALIFORNIA.

Mrs. Daisy Turner Krause, adjudged a vagrant in police court Tuesday afternoon and fined $200, left El Paso Saturday afternoon on the Golden State limited with chief of police B. F. Jenkins, who will deliver her to the sheriff at Los Angeles, Cal., where she is wanted on a charge of shooting with intent to kill. The prosecuting witness is F. H. Griffith, a mining man, whom Mrs. Krause admitted in El Paso that she shot in the left arm following an alleged insult.

Mrs. Krause left the police station shortly after 1:30 o'clock in company of an officer, to go to a hotel and packed her personal effects preparatory to the trip to Los Angeles.

REGISTERED MAIL RULE IS AMENDED

El Paso Postoffice Notified of Change in Regulation Affecting Delivery.

An important amendment to the postal laws and regulations, affecting the delivery of registered mail, has been received at the postoffice. Hereafter registered mail will be delivered to any responsible person to whom the addressee's mail is customarily delivered. In the absence of a written order from the sender or addressee, however, registered mail will not be delivered to the legal representative, the proprietor of a hotel or rooming house, the manager or clerk, unless the letter is addressed in care of such persons.

Registered mail sent to a dead man, or an insane person, may be delivered to the legal representative. The department construes the word "responsible" to mean adult members of the addressee's family, his employees in a clerical or supervisory capacity, the proprietor or manager of a private lodging house in which he resides.

WEEK END RUSH OF CATTLE BEING MADE

Caples Sends Three Cars of Mules to Mexican Petroleum Co.

A shipment of 29 cars of cattle for Brigham and Rose was passed through the port Saturday morning. Two other shipments, one of 55 cars and another of 27 cars, are looked for at the port during the day.

Three cars of mules were passed through the Mexican customs house Friday, being a part of the order placed with the Mexican Petroleum company. The mules are being sent to Tampico to be used in hauling material for the construction of the large cement oil reservoirs to be built by the Southwestern Portland Cement company.

THREE TEAMS ARE READY FOR TOURNAMENT

Three teams are organized and captained for the winter bowling tournament which begins on November 22. Two other teams, captained by Stafford Campbell and A. W. Hound, are in the state of formation, and other teams, bringing the total entries for the tournament up to eight, will be organized before the opening of the tournament.

The number of bowling enthusiasts in the city has grown to such proportions that a tournament will be organized for the younger bowlers. There are at present 300 bowlers in the city, amateurs and the top-notchers.

The bankers' tournament, in which four teams have entered, will begin soon after the opening of the regular winter tournament.

The teams that have entered the winter tournament are as follows: Juniors—Schutz (captain), Bryan, Car, Suggs, Hardiker and Barela. Independents—Crichett (captain), Bateman, Lehman, Paul, Abbott and Race.

Watson's—Watson (captain), Weaver, White, Kiefer, Herfort and Sukerman.

NO RETURNS YET FROM PRECINCT 28

Election officials are anxiously awaiting returns from precinct No. 28, the voting booth for which is at Sayler's ranch, in the southeastern part of the county. It is the only precinct from which the vote has not been announced.

When the precinct was established, it was estimated that there were 35 votes in the district. Toyah, Reeves and the election supplies were sent to that point. County clerk Pittman has not yet been informed whether an election was held at Sayler's ranch.

HORSE SHOW ASSOCIATION TO HOLD ANNUAL ELECTION

The Horse Show association, the permanent organization for holding the annual society horse show, will meet next week to elect officers and arrange for next year's show. A series of matinee harness races are also being planned for the winter.

JUDGE EYLAH MAKES PLEA FOR BOY WHO WANTS WORK

"One of the boys sent to the reform farm is back on parole," said Judge Eylah Saturday.

"He has been there a year and a half. When he left, he was this and that. He was poor and feeble. He is strong and healthy now, and shows the effect of proper nourishment and regular hours. He can speak some English. His name is Suro Flores, and he is not a bad looking boy. His father is blind. His mother is old and feeble. He is the only child, and the sole support of his parents.

"He wants work. He doesn't want to run the streets as he did before. He doesn't want to steal, but if he can't get work, what is he going to do? If he had work, I have no doubt he would only be too glad to help his father and mother. I am trying to get him a place somewhere but it is hard for a boy of his age to secure work. It is a deplorable state of affairs that sent this boy to the reform farm for stealing to live, and that now after a year and a half there, sends him back to face the same conditions again."

J. J. Mundy left Saturday afternoon for Elgin, Ill., to accompany Mrs. Mundy home from a visit with relatives there.
